DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA JUDGE
TO KEYNOTE JUDGE'S DAY LUNCHEON
SATURDAY AT UM

MISSOULA--

The Hon. William B. Jones, judge of district court for the District of Columbia, will give the keynote address during the annual Judges' Day Luncheon Saturday (April 28) at the University of Montana.

Judge Jones, a practicing lawyer in Montana during the 1930s prior to moving to Washington, D.C., is chairman of the Judicial Administration Division of the American Bar Association.

The theme of Judge Jones' address will be the role of the lawyer as an advocate in trials. He will speak on the inadequacy of training for being an advocate and list areas which could be improved, both in law schools and in practice.

The noon luncheon honoring the Montana Judiciary will conclude a two-day conference April 27-28 on "Trends in Consumer Credit Legislation," cosponsored by the Montana Bar Association and UM School of Law. Both the conference and the luncheon will be held in the University Center Ballroom.

Other Law Weekend activities include:

A smoker for alumni and friends of the UM law school will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday (April 27) at the Moose Lodge, 140 W. Pine.

The Law Day banquet is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Saturday (April 28) followed by the Barrister's Ball at 9:30 p.m., both held at the Edgewater Restaurant.

Names of recipients of 1972-73 scholarships and other awards will be announced during the banquet by UM Law Dean Robert E. Sullivan.
